

STATE ORDERS, BUT TOWN HAS TO PAY

DECENNIAL CENSUS BEGINS JANUARY 1

The state's decennial census will get underway in Wilmington on January 1, giving the local enumerators a double job of gathering the usual information for the Wilmington Board of Registrars at the same time as they gather information for the Commonwealth.

Data is to be collected on every man, woman and child, and on dogs as well.

The Board of Selectmen, who are responsible for the state's count, have turned their job over to the Town Clerk, Mrs. Esther Russell, who will co-ordinate the job with the annual street listing. The Commonwealth requires, but does not pay for the census, which is taken every 10 years and is scheduled to alternate with the U.S.

Census.

Mrs. Russell, in a conference with the Selectmen, Monday night, told them that it would cost about $1600 for the state census. The enumerators will collect all information requested by the state, and then later transfer from the tabulated information, that which is required by the town for its census. The town lists persons 20 years and over, and dogs.

Census takers are usually paid at the rate of 16 cents per person, for the town census, and 8 cents per dog. The rate of pay for the state census is 10 cents, the relatively cheaper rate being because there are more names to be had from each household.

The cost of the local census is usually about $1600, the same as that estimated for the state census.

NOMINATION PAPERS ARE OUT FOR NINE CANDIDATES

POLITICAL ARENA OPENS UP

As the year of 1965 approaches more candidates are taking out papers from the office of the Town Clerk, for political office in Wilmington.

Nine sets of papers have been taken so far, as of Wednesday afternoon.

Felice Vitale, of Woburn Street, James Miceli of Cedar Crest Ave, Selectwoman Wavie Drew, Paul Niles of Woburn Street, and Joseph Sottile of Baker Street have told the Town Crier that they were candidates for election to the Board of Selectmen.

Robert Michelson of Adams St. has also taken out Selectmen's papers, but has made no statement, so that it is not certain whether the papers are for himself, or for his friend John Brooks, whose term expires in March, along with Mrs. Drew.

Atty. Simon Cutter has taken out papers for re-nomination to the post of Moderator.

Joseph Paglia of Nichols Street has taken out papers for School Committee, his third attempt. Neither of the incumbents have so far made any move.

There has been no action so far for the single position in the Housing Authority, now occupied by Mrs. Flora Kasabuski. At the same time there is a possibility that a second opening will occur on this board, as one member, Eddie Forrest has not attended a meeting for six months. Mr. Forrest has been appointed Chief of Police of Hardwicke, but still maintains his residence in Wilmington.

The mystery candidate is the person for whom Stanley Webber has taken out papers. He has not identified this person, other than to say, cryptically, that it is 'a friend'.

NOTICE

In compliance with Chapter 51, General Laws, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the annual canvass of all persons, male and female, twenty years and over, will be made in Wilmington during the months of January and February.

MUSICIANS LIVE ON MELODY LANE: Mr and Mrs DeVivo, (Lee and Gerald) both of whom are teaching musicians, moved into their new home, in Jackson Heights II, last week. The Jackson Brothers renamed the street, which will have only their home on it, Melody Lane, in their honor.

She is the organist at the East Saugus Methodist Church, and he is Instrumental Music Teacher, in the Acton and Norwood Public Schools. Both are graduates of the Boston Conservatory of Music, where his father, Ottavio, is on the faculty. His father is Director of Music in the Everett Public Schools.

JOSEPH SOTTILE CANDIDATE FOR SELECTMAN

Joseph J Sottile, 12 Baker St.

today announced his candidacy for election to the Board of Selectmen of Wilmington.

44 years old, married to the former Jean Cunningham of Wilmington, with two children, he has been a resident of Wilmington for the past 21 years. He is the Regional Manager of Paillard, Inc., of Linden NJ, one of the largest manufacturing firms of movie equipment.

Mr Sottile is a Charter Member and Past Commander of the William F Tattersall Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans, a member of Wilmington Council 4335, K of C, is a past General Chairman of the Wilmington Heart Fund (1954 & 1955), and a former Charter Member of the Wilmington Little League.

A veteran of World War II, he served 33 months overseas, in the African and European Theatres, as a Cryptographic Technician in the Signal Corps.

PAUL NILES IN SELECTMENS RACE

Paul Niles of Woburn Street took out nomination papers for the Selectmens race on Monday night. Niles, an attorney and resident of Wilmington for the past eight years has been very active in civic affairs in the town.

He is a graduate of Boston College and graduated Boston College Law School in 1949 after serving as a B-24 pilot (a four engined bomber) in World War II. His employment for 8 years as a trial attorney with the Army Corps of Engineers gave him construction contract experience which he brought to the Permanent Building Committee on which he served as Secretary from its beginning in 1958 until 1963 when his second term expired.

Niles served on a Town-Railroad Committee in 1959, organized to protest the curtailment of passenger service. He was also a member of a study group to investigate the possibility of improving electric service in the town by establishing our own municipal light department.

Recently Mr. Niles, who is the Manager of the Contracting Office at the Mitre Corporation, and Mr. Charles Burt of Carson Ave. were active in attempting to clarify the tax situation. They believed that several discrepancies which they noted in the establishment of the tax rate could have been avoided if better information had been furnished to the voters.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Robert Brisbois, Lawrence St. arrived home on Dec. 22nd, from Okinawa, where he had been serving with the US Army. He received an early discharge, in order to be home for Christmas.

NEITHER BLACK NOR WHITE

The year 1964 produced some remarkable disputes, in Wilmington, in which the issues were not always clear, in which the facts were sometimes nebulous, and in which the decisions, sometimes proclaimed to be decisive, were in fact of the so-called Scotch Verdict variety, i.e. Not Proven.

The outstanding dispute was that of the taxation of industrially and commercially zoned properties.
This and other disputes seemed to arise from an effort on the part of the Town Manager to get industrial sites for potentially incoming manufacturing firms.

Early in the year Town Manager Gerald Bouchard was seeking a ten acre lot, of industrial property, with access to a railroad. A well known firm sought to locate in this town, but Bouchard could not find a site which was suitable.

There is no direct evidence that this led the Principal Assessor into his now famous decision to increase the valuations on industrially and com-mercially zoned properties, but there are people in Wilmington who believe this to be the case.

On July 29, 1965, one year and three weeks after the previous Principal Assessor had been fired, with one of the reasons being that the tax bills were not ready by July 4th, the current Principal Assessor sought to have the Board of Assessors vote to revalue commercial and industrial properties, for the 1954 tax valuations. He was not successful.

Three days later he won, by a two to one vote.
Shortly afterwards this paper printed the news and the industrial and commercial land owners learned what was coming. The fat was in the fire.

The subsequent events are well known. The owners of the lands organized to get an injunction.

There was a special meeting of the Board of Selectmen. The Town Counsel told the Selectmen that the owners would not be able to get an injunction.
Selectman John Brooks declared in effect that it was time the businessmen of the community paid some taxes, instead of the home owners.

The cases, (there were two of them) did go to court, and an injunction was issued.

Demurrers were filed by the town, and after a long wait they were sustained, but the presiding justice, on his own volition, sent the cases to the Supreme Judicial Court, for further judgement.

The Supreme Judicial Court, in turn, sustained the demurrers, but with a curiously worded statement that it would be willing to listen to more evidence.

The decision, in other words, was not painted in terms of black and white, but rather in tones of varying grey.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

On the beginning of the New Year, we would like to take the opportunity to thank our loyal customers for their patronage and to say that we will strive to serve you even better in 1965.

Bedell Brothers Insurance Agency, Inc.
402 Main St. OLiver 8-9116 Wilmington, Mass.

It must be remembered that in the so-called Springfield case, which led to the ruling on 100% valuations on all real estate, the decision was not mad as the result of the first case of this type to appear in court.

It was only after several attempts that the case was submitted in such a way as to make the issues finally clear.

The issues in the Wilmington case, so-called,
have now had their first appearance. The justices of the Supreme Judicial Court have said that they are willing to listen further. It could be that a few more cases of this type could result in a ruling which would parallel, and be of equal importance, to the Springfield Case - no partial revaluations in any one year, of one particular class of property.

The chances are that this will not happen, at least from Wilmington, for the Assessors have now asked for money in the coming annual Town Meeting for a complete revaluation - the thing that the business men were arguing should be done. The cause of the complaint will probably be removed.

But, while the decision of the Supreme Court was a Scotch Verdict for Wilmington, the effect may possibly be felt for a long time.

The businessmen of Wilmington have been shocked. Not the big big businessmen, but the little fellows, and the medium sized ones.

Shocking the business men of a community is not the best way to keep their confidence, and a lot of confidence in the town has been lost in the past few months.

This is the thing which can and will hurt, unless immediate steps are taken to restore confidence.

It has been the industrial growth of Wilmington for the past ten years which has enabled the town to keep abreast of the need for new schools and such without incurring too high taxes for the home owners.

If the businessmen of the community continue to feel that the town is discriminating against them
the town is going to suffer.

Questions on Valuation

Meanwhile there are people in Wilmington who scoff at the alarm of the owners of industrial and commercial properties.

The owners, the scoffers say, deserve to be penalized. They are holding up the industrialization of Wilmington by looking for high prices for their properties - high prices and low taxes.

To a degree there is a point here. There are people who are speculating in land values.

There was a basic justice in the revaluation of the industrial and commercial properties by the Principal Assessors. There would have been more justice had the other types of real estate been re-valued too.

And there were injustices in some of the valuations that were made.

Three outstanding cases are those of the Weinberg Department Store, the Gardner Professional Building, and the farm of Bob Evans.

This is, of course, a matter of judgement. This column, admittedly, is not an expert in the matter of real estate values, and the Principal Assessor of Wilmington is - a professional expert.

But it would seem that something has been overlooked.

There are, to make an argument, such things as 'right' and 'wrong' locations for businesses, and the 'right' and 'wrong' sides of a street.

The owner of property in the 'wrong' location, were he but fifty feet from a 'right' location, has

TOWN NOTES

Pansies at Christmas

Wilmington had its January Thaw for Christmas this year.

We don't have the rainfall - sorry
we didn't get the time to find out, but it was in the neighborhood of two inches, with the temperatures up to 55 degrees for several days.

It was what we call a Regular Town Manager Snow Storm - i.e.
all rain - no snowplows, and the TM saves money on the Snow Account.

Old timers in Wilmington who have a backyard garden always use the January Thaw to go out and dig parsnips - which, after having undergone a month of freezing weather are juicy and sweet.

So yours truly dug parsnips out of his garden on the day after Christmas, and, while he was at it, carrots and onions, which were not garnered at the proper time because of the press of other business.

They were served with the Sunday dinner.

But Joe McMahon, of the Mechanics Savings Bank takes the prize.

On Christmas Day Joe went out to his garden and picked fresh pansies!

Honest!

W H A MEETING

The status of member Eddie Forrest came up for discussion at the WHA meeting, December 22.
He has been residing in the town of Hardwick, in Central Massachusetts, and is Chief of Police there and has not been to a WHA meeting for 6 months. All the rest of the members have had inquiries from the townspeople and recently a Housing Authority meeting could not be held because of lack of a quorum.

Mrs. Kasabuski related how the Town Clerk had phoned her because she was in a quandry not knowing whether to issue nomination papers and she also has official papers which she must file.

Mr. Donahue stated that he had received calls along this line and that someone told him that the whole board as well as Eddie Forrest would be up on charges under Chapter 121, Section 26M - Removal of Members. Under this section of the Housing Authority Act, the board of Selectmen may make or receive written charges against a member for 'inefficiency, neglect of duty and misconduct in office', etc.

Mr. Crispo felt that the WHA has been more than lenient with Eddie Forrest in allowing 6 months to go by and since he, himself, is going to Florida, it would mean that only the legal quorum of three members would be left to handle the WHA business and that was stretching things a little too lean in case of an emergency.

Upon a motion, a Registered letter was sent to Eddie Forrest asking him to state his intentions.

TOWN MEETING

WARRANT CLOSES

4:30 PM TODAY

The warrant for the annual Town Meeting will be closed at 4:30 pm
this afternoon, in the Town Hall.

The Selectmen have chosen to close the warrant earlier than has been the custom, in an effort to avoid the usual last minute rushes to complete their work. The decision was made last October.

A number of warrant articles, to be considered in the annual Town Meeting next March, have already been submitted. Mrs.
Olive Sheldon, Clerk to the Selectmen, is the person who receives the articles for the Selectmen.

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

The Board of Selectmen closed the year Monday evening with a combination of an open and closed (Executive) meeting. The Executive portions consisted of about six minutes before the meeting was called to order with just the members of the Board present, and then at 8:50 pm, before the remainder of the meeting had taken place, the Board met with Jackson Brothers until 9:20 pm in another closed door session regarding industrial development. The open meeting finally adjourned at 9:50 pm and at that time the Town Clerk, Esther Russell requested that the Board go into another Executive session which lasted half an hour, regarding the 1965 Census to be taken the 19th.

Taxes

To date the Town has collected $1,679,000.00 out of a possible $2,570,000.00 on taxes and as of Monday evening there were only four business days left in this year to collect them which, according to TM Bouchard will leave the Town with an unusually high unpaid tax balance.

This, he said with emphasis, will have an effect on the Free Cash and also the Tax Rate for next year.

Jurors Drawn

Rita Twombly, 12 Marjorie Rd. and Mabel Shannlak, 109 West Street were drawn to serve in the Jury Pool in Cambridge starting February 1.

License Renewals Granted

Applications for renewal of licenses were granted to: Fred F. Cain - Auto Rental License and Class I Garage License; Gildart Chevrolet - Class I Garage License; Burpees Lakeside Variety - Renewal; Altman's Little Giant Liquor Store - Renewal; Rocco's Restaurant - License for Sunday; Wilmington Bowladrome - Renewal. It was agreed by the Board that the Fee for the licenses would remain the same, however, on a suggestion from John Brooks, the Board is to review all the various types of licenses granted in the Town.

Waiting Five Years

Bob Evans, who felt that he should meet with the Board more often than he does because of his various problems, aired a few of them Monday night.

He had previously talked to the TM as to whether or not an article could be submitted to the Town Meeting to deed back the land not required by the road that was taken in the widening of Ballardvale Street. The total amount of land that Evans had donated to the Town was five and one half acres.

TM Bouchard said that out of the twelve land takings for Ballardvale Street that were made by the town for Chapter 90 reconstruction, eleven owners signed releases for damages.

The TM is to make a report on the physical aspects of the land and also obtain advice from the Town Counsel before the Board takes any action. Evans is going to submit the article and if the Board decides to submit the same article, theirs will supersede Mr. Evans'.

At the time of the land takings were made certain agreements were made between the abutters and the Town. One of these was that the Town was to erect a stock fence on Mr. Evans land, because at the time of the land takings, the boundary of rose bushes was removed. The TM agreed that these commitments were made and must be carried out by the Town.

Another problem with Evans was Ainsworth Road, which the town created out of the old Salem-Lowell Railroad bed, five years ago. Evans is still paying taxes on this road, even though the town has spent some money on construction, has laid a water main and has accepted the road, all about five years ago.

Evans felt that Monday night was just as good a time as any to remind the Selectmen that he was still paying the taxes for the road, and that the town had agreed to construct a ditch system for the road, which it has not done.

TM Jerry Bouchard was instructed by the Selectmen to find out the cost, and to include this cost as a part of the Highway Department budget.

Another Evans problem is a drainage ditch on easement that he had given the Town. The ditch is near the common wall that divides Evans property from Murphys, and could at a later date cause trouble as far as the wall was concerned.

It was pointed out, a hazard to hunters in the area as the land is not posted and in this case certain liabilities could occur. The Town Manager agreed that the ditch constitutes a hazard and felt that unless the Town thought of closing the ditch, there is not too much that can actually be done about it. Bouchard also pointed out that it was constructed by the State and County Engineers.

Signs

Selectman Charles Black spoke of the picture that had appeared in the Town Crier last week. He told the Board that the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce is much disturbed because of the sign by-laws, and yet an out of town builder comes in and puts up signs all over town - and then constructs a seven foot fence beside the home of a State Street lady who has lived here for nearly 50 years. It wasn't an eight foot fence, he noted - that would make it a spite fence.

Mr. Black suggested that the Zoning Officer be asked to see about the signs which the builder had put up, and the TM was so instrusted.

Again Mr. Black spoke up regarding the parking and traffic problem down at the Wilmington Shopping Plaza last Wednesday and Thursday and suggested a possible widening of the street from Bridge Lane to Clark Street. Because of the hazardous traffic conditions, one of the islands at the first entrance to the parking lot had to be removed. The Town Manager had previously contacted the State D.P.W. in regards to paving the street in that area and was asked by the Board to do so again. Selectman Black felt that we would never get the work done if the Town did not take some initiative.

WILMINGTON 8 BURLINGTON 1

Wilmington trounced Burlington Tuesday night which ties them for first place in the League. Frank Scott guarded by his team mates played an exceptionally good game. He went until the last period, 17 seconds left, with no one around to help him before he let the puc pass him.

Reggie Chambers scored 2, Buddy Chambers 1, Cliff Huston 1, Damien Hurlburt 1 and Hank Moriarty 3; Hank Moriarty made 2 assists, Richard Walsh 2, Cliff Huston 1, Reggie Chambers 3, John Curran 1 and Buddy Chambers 4.

Wilmington was really hot Tuesday night, however they will not be playing next week. We hope to see many fans at the Frost Arena the following week to cheer our boys on to a big victory.

ANNETTE CAMPBELL IS PRESIDENT OF WHITEFIELD P T A

New officers were elected at the December 4 meeting of the Whitefield P.T.A. President - Annette Campbell; Vice Pres. - Cecile Marini; Secretary - Carol Wiberg; Treasurer - Claire Sylek. Also elected were Refreshment Chairman - Harriet Cain; Publicity - Mary Morrison; Membership - Tillie Walsh.

A report was made on the results of the Executive Board's meeting with TM Bouchard and Mr. Jaeschke. The following improvements to the Whitefield School are now being made or will be made in the near future.

Fire Escape - Mr. Bouchard has put this item in a request in his budget.

Hot Top - around both sides of the school. Mr. Bouchard has also added this to his budget.

Bubbler for the 2nd floor - A new drinking fountain is partially installed.

Lunch Room - The general area will have a thorough cleaning. An exhaust fan will be installed. A new floor will be poured.

Mr. Robert Barry spoke at the December 14th meeting and his subject dealt with the abundance of indecent literature available on our bookstands today. The P.T.A. group was shocked and disturbed to learn that such obscene magazines and books are readily available for our children to purchase.

Tentative plans were made to hold a meeting in January and formulate plans on the best means to rid the Town of Wilmington of such literature, if one could truly call it that.

WINTER DRIVING HAZARDS

Police Chief Paul J. Lynch warns of special hazards of winter driving.

Informal traffic counts show an impressive increase in motor vehicle and pedestrian traffic in Wilmington. This means that in order to prevent accidents and exasperating traffic tie-ups, both pedestrians and drivers are expected to exercise reasonable patience and courtesy, and brush up on their knowledge of special winter traffic hazards.

The chief warned that the following conditions ought to be anticipated: reduced traction on road ways and crosswalks, due to the presence of frost, ice or snow; and reduced visibility, caused by early darkness, falling snow, sleet or freezing rain.

The recommendations of the National Safety Council Committee on Winter Driving Hazards are:

1. Get the 'feel' of the road. A road which appears to be bare may actually be coated with a thin but treacherous layer of frost. Road surfaces may be 'felt' by carefully trying the brakes, or by accelerating to see if tires grab the roadway, before getting into heavy traffic.

2. Follow at a safe distance. The usual rule-of-thumb recommends a following distance of one car-length for each ten miles per hour of speed. On icy roads this must be increased appreciably because of the longer braking distances then in effect.

Braking distances are from 3 to 12 times as great, depending on whether there is snow or glare ice on the pavement. Test results reported by the National Safety Council for stopping distance from 20 MPH are: with regular tires on glare ice - 195 ft., loose snow - 60 ft.; with snow tires on glare ice - 174 ft., loose snow 52 ft.; with reinforced tire chains on glare ice - 77 ft. loose snow - 38 ft.

3. Pump brakes. Jamming on the brakes can lock the wheels, producing a skid. Expert drivers have proved that a rapid pumping application of brakes maintains steering control and helps prevent skids.

4. Have good tires. This means tires with plenty of tread, properly inflated. The old notion about letting some air out of a tire to improve traction on snow or ice is not only discredited, it's dangerous...because this creates instability. Snow tires are helpful in certain winter conditions, particularly in loosely packed snow.

5. Carry tire chains for severe conditions. Reinforced tire chains have proven, under all types of winter test conditions, to be the best known device for providing stop and go traction when the going gets rough.

6. Be sure you can see and be seen. Check out defrosters and windshield wipers to give yourself a chance to see. Wiper arm pressure is especially important in winter, when there may be heavy, wet slush to push aside. A wiper that rides over heavy windshield accumulations is of no help. It must bite in, and sweep clean.

182 CHRISTMAS BULBS WERE STOLEN: The Wilmington Tree Department took down the lights on the Herbert C Barrows Tree, on Wilmington Common, the day after Christmas. As fast as the light bulbs were replaced they were stolen, by persons unknown. Tree Warden Bill Babine exhibits an empty light socket.

Herbert Cyrus Barrows - Citizen

It had a rather wild reputation, and the young matrons of that day, on their way to the Silver Lake railroad station, used to shoot the children over to the other side of the road, while passing the Jackson Club.

One evening, in the middle of the summer, a real riot broke out in the Jackson Club.

The Chief of Police was called, but he couldn't quell the riot. Somebody called Herb.

He came down in his horse and buggy, and, dropping the reins, went roaring into the Jackson Club. Herb was a small man, but a wiry one - right up to the day he died. Herb just grabbed the first man he saw, grabbed him by the collar, and dragged him out.

Just where Herb threw that Jackson Club member isn't certain today - except it was into the water. Maybe it was Silver Lake. Maybe it was a part of Lubbers Brook. 'But he'll drown!' wailed the Chief.

'Let the B----- drown!' roared Herb, and went in for the second man.

But there was no need. The Jackson Club, like the Reading school room of thirty years previous, was nice and quiet.

And there was the time the farmer burned down his barn.

The man lived on the Burlington Wilmington line, near the corner of Burlington Avenue and Forest Street. He was a member of a family which has lived in this area for nearly 300 years.

One Sunday morning, operating on the theory that a man has a right to burn down his barn, if he so chooses, this man set fire to his barn.

The Wilmington Fire Department, and the Burlington Fire Department, both volunteer, and both, of course, horse drawn, came galloping up.

There, on the corner of his property, rifle in hand, stood the man who owned the barn.

'I'll shoot the first man who steps on my property!' he warned.

And he meant it.

So the Wilmington and Burlington Fire Departments stood there and watched the barn burn down.

Next day the Wilmington Police, and the Burlington Police in turn, tried to arrest the man, but he got 'the drop' on them, and warned that he would shoot.

They believed him.

So Herb volunteered to handle the situation.

Herb drove up, in his horse and buggy, early in the morning, and engaged the man in conversation.

He told the man that he heard that he was a good shot.

He agreed.

Herb explained that he had a lot of woodchucks, in the hayfield on his farm. He wanted somebody to go down there and shoot those varmints.

There was an instant acceptance. 'Just wait till I get my rifle' he told Herb.

But Herb wasn't going to let him get that rifle.

'I haven't had breakfast yet. Let us go down to Arthur Hamilton's lunch cart in the Square and get some breakfast - then we'll come back and get your rifle, and get those wood-chucks!'

(Arthur Hamilton was the uncle of Earle Hamilton, painter, and lived in the house where Earle lives on Church Street. He operated a lunch cart in Wilmington Square for over 20 years).

So the two men got into the buggy and went down to Arthur Hamilton's. But they kept on going, and Herb didn't let him out until they had arrived at the Danvers Insane Asylum.

The Finance Committee

It was about 1925 that Wilmington first had a Finance Committee, to help in the government of the town. Herb was its first Chairman, and he stayed on as chairman until the day he retired - when he became Chairman Emeritus, and still an honorary member. He was an honorary member the day he died.

Each winter, as the first of January approached, Herb, and/or other members of the committee would get from the Board of Selectmen the expected budget for the next year.

Then there would be a long series of conferences, one every week, with the heads of the various departments. They were closed door conferences - today they would be called Executive Meetings.

Herb and his fellow members were separating the wheat from the chaff, in the budget. They would approve of things that were absolutely needed, but disapprove of any frills. Many a department head left those conferences white and shaken.

In between those meetings Herb would sit in the living room of his home, and study the situation. He didn't do much work in the winter time - and he had a lot of time to study those requests.

When the town's annual meeting rolled around, in March, Herb was all ready.

Mr Moderator, Mr Moderator, he would say, in his Yankee nasal accent -- 'Can't do it -- Can't appropriate the money! Section 41 L of Chapter 41 says --' and Herb would quote a law no one had ever heard of before.

The chances are that Herb was telling the truth, but even if he was not, there was no one to gainsay him. Herb kept the town's expenses down to a barebones minimum.

For years Herb ruled Wilmington's Financial Roost.

When the Town Manager plan was adopted he didn't quite like it. He was a progressive man, and willing to go with the times - but the idea of a young whipper snapper coming in and telling everybody the score - well, he'd see.

One day, for instance, Herb went down to the Town Hall to tell off one of those young pip-squeaks - Joseph F Courtney by name.

Herb made his point with Joe, but Joe in turn made his point with Herb, and from then on Herb was a man who appreciated what a Town Manager could do -- not that he wasn't just as suspicious of any proposed expenditure as he had been when the Department Heads came directly to him!

Joe and Herb made it almost in to a Mutual Admiration Society.

In his last few years in office Wilmington was building a new High School - spending millions of dollars.

That didn't set well with Herb. Maybe there was money to be saved somewhere.

He went to the annual Town Meeting of March 10, 1956, prepared to denounce the cost of the High School.

And that was when he got the surprise of his life, for the Chairman of the building committee got up and offered a resolution that the High School auditorium be named the Herbert C Barrows Auditorium.

Everyone knew it was coming - except Herb - and all he could do was to pull out a handkerchief and wipe away a few tears that had formed, in the corner of his eye.

much less value to his property.

Take for example two cigar stores, located in the same business square, but on opposite corners. They are identical in everything - even to the wares they offer the customer.

One, being in the 'right' location, might gross $100,000 a year, while the other grosses only $10,000 a year.

Obviously the owner of the first property has property which is much more valuable than the owner of the second property - even if they do have the same number of bricks, the same windows and doors, etc., and located within 100 feet of each other.

In Reading, for instance, the west side of Main Street in Reading Square has long been regarded as the 'right' side, while the East side is the 'wrong' side, and just for this reason.

Many businesses have started and failed, on the 'wrong' side. Those on the 'right' side prosper.

In other words there are things more than just the construction costs of a building, and the area of the land, in the valuation of any commercial property.

In the case of Weinberg's Store, it seems to have had an increase this year because a lot of land up the street sold for a pretty good price. Weinberg's is now assessed at $90,000.

Several knowing persons have been asked as to their judgement of the value, and their answers have ranged between $50,000 and $70,000.

In other words there seems to be an over-valuation, on the part of the assessors, and Weinberg's is being penalized.

In a similar case the Gardner Professional Building is assessed at over $70,000. The income from the building is in the neighborhood of $600 a month. Obviously a place with an income like that is over-assessed if it is said to be worth $70,000. There is more than just the cost of the bricks and labor in the construction of the building to be computed.

Among the other places in which there are questions as to judgement is the Bob Evans farm in North Wilmington. It is now assessed at over one third of a million dollars.

Mr Evans has to pay in excess of $200 a week in taxes. It is zoned industrially. Someday, in the future, there will probably be industry there. Being zoned for industry it is more valuable than a similar farm which is not so zoned.

But, with a tax of several hundred dollars a week Mr. Evans obviously has to do something, just to keep solvent.

If he cannot sell the farm or industry he must sell it in other ways. He may have to seek relief by asking the town meeting to rezone his farm to residential. If this is done, and there is a chance at least that the town meeting would so vote, Evans could sell his farm at a tidy profit, and save a lot of tax money.

But the town would be the loser, for instead of income producing industrial property there would be homes - which means more schools - police - firemen and other services - and higher taxes for all the home owners.

It would seem that the policy of the town is not in black and white - but rather in a neutral grey.

MRS DREW

It is comforting to hear that Mrs. Drew will again be a candidate for election to the Board of Selectmen.

The lady, during her tenure of office, has been a staunch supporter of good government. She doesn't speak often, she takes her time in making up her mind, but her judgement is clear and valid.

Her quiet decisions have the force of integrity.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL MEDICAL CENTER

More than 65 Wilmington children received medical care at the Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston which treated a total of 50,000 infants and youngsters during a twelve month period. Of the total number treated about one fifth were hospitalized and the remainder treated in the out-patient clinics. The hospital accepts patients up to 21 years of age; the greatest number were in the two to twelve year age with the second greatest number in the newborn to two year old category.

IN BUILDING PERMITS

The total value of building permits issued by the Town of Wilmington, during the year 1964, totaled nearly $3.5 million. The figure, Tuesday afternoon, was $3,408,450.

The figure is practically the same as that of a year ago, except that last year the figures included a school, for $500,000. Practically all the 1964 figures represent taxable property.

There were 184 new houses started in Wilmington during 1964. Most of these were constructed by local contractors, from Wilmington and nearby towns. The Jackson Brothers, of Wilmington, led the list with 43 new homes.

The leading item in industrial construction was the new Eagle Can Company building, off Concord Street. The declared valuation was $224,000. Other industrial construction included the new Koffee Kart building, off West St.

THEY BUILT THE MOST HOMES: The Jackson Brothers, Inc. of Wilmington, which started as a part-time organization eight years ago. They have earned a fine reputation as a fine business organization. L to R: Lionel Jackson, Leland Jackson, and Fred Jackson. The tired looking man (the camera caught him as he happened to wink) is the Building Inspector, Minot Anderson.

YEAR END REPORT OF THE READING CO-OP BANK

At the annual meeting of the Reading Co-operative Bank the following officers were re-elected for the year 1965: President - Paul E Case, Vice President - John L Devaney, Treasurer - Leslie D Stark, Assistant Treasurer - T Gerald Richards, Branch Manager Philip G Dalrymple, Clerk of the Board, Attorney, and Clerk of the Corporation - William G Day, Security Committee: Paul E Case, Ralph R Currier, and Chester E Oldmixon. Finance Committee: Harold E Melzar, Ralph M Kelmon, Ralph R Pomeroy.

Also re-elected to serve as Directors were: Mr Kelmon, Mr Pomeroy, James T Bankin and Mr Stark.

In his report to the Directors, Mr Stark stated that assets advanced to over $8,300,000 this past year. Net savings gains in all types of accounts amounted to $880,000, a gain of 14% for the year. Total dividends paid, likewise, increased to a record high of $268,000 based on the current rate of 4 1/8%. Real estate loans on homes in Reading and the surrounding communities continue to be the major investment of the bank, and amount to nearly $6,900,000.

In commenting to the board on the progress of the bank, Mr Case, President, said the opening of a full branch office in North Wilmington was a wise move in light of subsequent developments. On its first anniversary, the office under the supervision of Mr Dalrymple has been very well accepted by the people in that area and is proving to be a decided convenience to a large number of the bank's customers.

Wilmington men on the board of directors are Arnold C Blake, 90 Middlesex Avenue, Ralph R Currier, 18 Boutwell Street, Ralph M Kelmon, 156 Middlesex Avenue, and Harold E Melzar of Lake St.

one of the branches of General Foods, until its sale about eight years ago. The business which the company carries on was at one time, conducted in Wilmington, on Eames Street, until the plant burned down and it was rebuilt at its present site.

TELETYPE LEADS TO ARREST OF TWO

Wilmington's Police Department Teletype system, Sunday night, led to the arrest of two Wilmington youths, who were arraigned in Malden Court, Monday morning, on a charge of un-armed robbery.

Both entered pleas of Not Guilty. A youth, trying to get a ride on Route 93, in Medford, Sunday night was accosted by two other young men, who told him to 'scram' as the site where he was standing was 'their place'.

He moved up the road a piece, and the two men then followed him according to the story he later told the Medford Police. They beat him, he said, and robbed him of $14.00.

The boy returned to Medford and told his story to the police. It was sent out on teletype to towns near Route 93, as the Medford Police believed the two youths were heading home at the time of the robbery.

Officer Randall, coming in about Midnight, read the message, and recalled that he had just seen two young men coming off Route 93.

He drove off in the direction of their homes, and picked them up before either of the youths had arrived home.

The young man who had been robbed was brought to the Wilmington Police Station by the Medford Police, and according to the Wilmington Police he identified the two Wilmington youths as the persons who had robbed and assaulted him.
